

SECOND PERIOD

great and all competitors should take advantage of this period. Different in bonus vote schedule on subscriptions turned in during the last period and those turned in during the present period is tremendous and will undoubtedly make up the winning margin. Success or defeat will depend entirely upon the amount of work done in the present period and the competitors who put in every available moment and work to the limit of their energy and strength will be sure to win. Hard work wins every time. You can't beat it.

Another big shake-up in the standing with Miss Elizabeth Thompson leading the first district with 70,650 votes. Mrs. E. H. Conner comes second with 70,316. William Allen comes third with just a few less votes. Miss Mildred Eliason and John Dolan, Jr., furnish the big surprises of the day. Yesterday Miss Eliason only had 27,580 votes and this evening she is right up in the running with 62,580 votes to her credit. Mr. Dolan made a similar jump and has 67,725 votes.

The "fighting second" is always there for every day seems to bring out some new competitors. Today T. N. Mason leads the way for the Sudebaker automobile with 72,510 votes. Mr. Mason is getting good support at Shinnston and at Willard Mines and promises to be in the race until it is finished. Miss Jean Rice, of the same place, is just ten votes less than Mr. Mason and she wants one of the automobiles. The Shinnston competitors are receiving good support and promise to cause the other competitors to keep after the subscriptions in order to beat them out. C. F. Lisher, of McWhorter, is following a close third. Miss Marie Joyce and Miss Norma Gerrard are just five votes apart. A close vote, indeed. Suppose they should be this close at the end of the campaign. It surely is an interesting race. Miss Nela Knox, Mrs. Zedma Morris and Arthur McCartney are running a close race.

The second period and second diamond ring offer will close promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow night. Get in all subscriptions possible before that time.
